'The great gift of Easter is hope' — Basil Hume

Not everyone celebrates Easter, but along with the spring it is seen as a time of hope [and chocolate]. I am trying to be hopeful, but frankly I am feeling a bit low. There has been some easing of restrictions but, for many people, there is no change.

It is too cold to meet with others outside in a garden and so many are still staying home.

So I'm going to have another bit of chocolate and celebrate the wonderful Day Centre and all it's people. They deliver joy and hope for the future.

Jackie Tagg, Editor

Becks, a pupil at North Berwick High School, made this wonderful cake which she donated to the Day Centre. It was sliced and delivered to members.

Such a wonderful gesture. Thank you Becks.

Day Centre Volunteers

From Directors and Committee Members to the many day to day volunteers, the Day Centre relies on wonderful people. Of course at the moment most volunteers aren't able to help and are missing all the members. A few are able to contribute and we thank them.

Telephone Befrienders

These lovely people have been ringing some members every week. So good to have a chat and share stories and feelings. 'Keeps me going' one member told me. So here are some of the faces behind the voices.
