Two's company

Wow what a difference it has made being able to take two people on bus trips. Smiles all round. It's a joy to see friends together again and sometimes sharing a cuppa and a cake. Thank you to the local cafes that have made special efforts to accommodate us and keep us safe. These small pleasures mean such a huge amount.

Sea and Seaside Poems

The Day Centre team are always trying to think up new things to help members whilst the Centre is closed. A genius thought of producing a book of poems. Members were happy to say what were their favourite seaside poems. Joy Lancaster kindly donated her beautiful paintings to accompany them. An amazing book has been produced for each member. Lovely.
