The wheels on the bus go round again

How fantastic that the Day Centre bus is out and about again. Only one passenger plus the driver and passenger assistant, but it's a start and bringing lots of enjoyment. Members have been visiting familiar and unfamiliar places and also popping by to have distanced chats with old friends. Not everyone can take advantage of these trips so we are continuing our social distanced chats at front doors.

There was great excitement for two members. One saw the lobster boat that had got stuck on the rocks. A long wait for the tide. Another member was lucky enough to see a train at Markle. Such ordinary things that now seem extraordinary sights.

A matter of masks

The North Berwick resilience team sewers have made over 1000 masks. One was in Donald tartan just for Jean

Spotlight on the Day Centre staff

The staff miss you all coming to the Day Centre. You will be pleased to know they are still as many as ever.

You will notice some faces are missing, but I'll capture them in another edition! Ed.

Sanctuary in the secret garden

St Andrew Blackkadder Church has a small garden down the side of the building [nearest the Day Centre]. Access is via the High Street or St Andrew Street. Through the gates. Anyone is welcome to use it and enjoy a distanced chat or solitary peace.

Sybil and Mary enjoying the peace and tranquillity of the Church garden. Not to mention the wonderful opportunity for these great friends to meet up in a safe setting
