Stop Press—Day Centre opens 5 days per week

After a year and several months of being closed or restricted, the Day Centre is now open 5 days a week.

Thanks to Carol and her team for all their behind the scenes work to make this happen and for ensuring everyone is kept as safe as possible.

I am not going to dwell on restrictions rather lets just celebrate this wonderful step forward.

Something fishy comes up smelling of roses

Congratulations to the Day Centre for winning the Best Community Group Award for their entries to the Fish Box challenge.

Jean and Ronnie, ably assisted by Shonach, designed and planted the winning boxes.

Jean's entry, left, reflecting nature and wild life.

Ronnie's entry, right reflecting Bass rock lighthouse and seascape.

Fantastic to be back!

Flower girls Morna, Elsie and Annie, arranging flowers for the lunch time table settings. No doubt a good bit of happy chatting going on too.

Whilst we are on the subject of flowers, the garden has produced some huge sunflowers.

They have been entered in to the North Berwick in Bloom Sunflower competition, closing date 24 September.

Not sure who has planted and nurtured them, but they must be prize winners.

Ronnie and Margaret are certainly dwarfed by the sunflowers.

The Trishaw is back on the road

This beautiful electric bike, with a passenger seat at the front, is now available again. If you fancy a spin, ask any of the Day Centre team to arrange it for you. The 'drivers' are fully trained and insured to give you a fantastic trip, at a speed to suit you, around North Berwick.

Meanwhile indoors

This is a fabulous photograph of Jim listening to his favourite music.

His personal favourites have been put on a play list so he can sit and enjoy them when ever he wants.

Looks to me like Jim would have made a great DJ.

Hard to top that

Some members were able to attend events at the Fringe by the Sea. What an amazing Big Top in the Lodge Grounds. So lovely to be out and about with people enjoying themselves.

Christine, Malcolm, John?
And Linda are dwarfed by the Big Top.

They enjoyed a Compassionate
Communities event.

Correction

The Peter Rabbit quilt was completed by Janet and Maureen, not Margaret as reported last month.
So sorry to get this wrong.
