The Day Centre celebrates with street parties

What a wonderful time members, volunteers and the Day Centre Team have had celebrating with The Queen. Photographs are enough to show the amount of work the Team put in and the amount of joy and fun for everyone.

Jackie Tagg

To start the celebrations the members wrote to The Queen congratulating her on 70 years loyal service. Sally nipped out to post the letter.

Stall at the Harbour

Our stall sold empire biscuits, jams and had a tombola. Around £350 was raised. Thanks to all for the baking, jams prizes and manning the stall.

What we were doing on Coronation Day 1952

Mary 'Walked down The Mall. Just to be in London was marvellous and I did see The Queen'

Rainie 'We had a street party in Sefton Park, Liverpool'

Jean C 'At my first boarding school. Climbing trees, waving flags and tea on the beach with singing and dancing'

Vera 'My daughter was born that day in Elsie Inglis Hospital'

Pauline 'I watched on my mother-in-law's TV. My first baby was born the next day'

Margaret B 'Watched on a black and white TV. Many people bought a TV just for the Coronation'

Frances 'Watched on a friend's TV'

Dennis 'I watched it on TV and really enjoyed the spectacle'
